All Saints Day

1 November 2020

The Anglican Parish of Rothesay

Sunday School

Sunday School will be downstairs today during the 10 a.m. service.

Our Deepest Condolences

We extend our love and prayers to the family of the late Paul Fanjoy whose funeral was held at St. Paul's yesterday, October 31st.

Masks at Church

Masks are now required in all indoor public spaces in New Brunswick - that includes churches. If you do not have a mask, there are disposable ones available in the narthex.

Curry Dinner

The Indian takeout dinner as a fundraiser was a great success on Saturday, the 24th. The authentic Indian meal was enjoyed by everyone who bought tickets. A total of $3275 was raised for the committee that supports Mansour. Very special thanks go out to everyone who helped with preparing the dinner and to the members of the Youth group who delivered the dinners to the cars. Everything went very smoothly.

Lectionary Bible Study

You're welcome to join Father Paul on Wednesday mornings at 10 a.m. for a Bible Study based on the up-coming Sunday readings. Do consider coming.

All Saints Day

"Saints are Christians who in various ways, often against great odds, showed an extraordinary love for Christ. The Holy Spirit acted in their lives so that they chose to bring aid to the needy, justice to the oppressed, hope to the sorrowful, and the divine word of forgiveness to sinners. It is the Church's conviction that the saints continue to be our partners and fellow-servants before the face of God's glory. We pray for our present needs, and the saints pray with us — not as if their prayers were better than our own, but because they are still bound to us in mutual service as members of the one body of Christ." (For all the Saints)

Fr. Paul & Erin's New House

"We are very excited to share with you the news that we purchased a house in Hampton. It's a lovely old home with tons of character that needs a little TLC. It is a big milestone for Erin and I as a newly married couple and is an investment in our future. We look forward to someday moving in, but for the time being will be staying put in the rectory." - Fr. Paul

Birthday Wishes

We wish many birthday blessings to Millie Gregory, who will turn 85 on 6 November.

Signing up for Worship

Please go to our website stpaulsonthecommon.com/praywithus to register for a service.

Church Calendars are in!

Church calendars are now available. $10 each. They make a great Christmas gift! Get yours after the 10 a.m. service or by calling the office (847-1812).

St. Paul's Online Book Club

Our Book Club is all set to begin on 3 November at 7 p.m. If you are interested in joining us, please let us know. (see back for contact details)

Evening Prayer

There will be a service of Evening Prayer today at 7 p.m. This will be a quiet, reflective service concluding with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This service, which will be unfamiliar to many, is part of our rich Anglican heritage. It allows us time and space to soak in the mystery of God's presence among us in the Eucharist, and to be still and know the God who desires to satisfy our deepest longings. This service may also be convenient for those who wish to come back to church, but are uncomfortable with the larger groups on Sunday morning. Please sign-up online. *Please note that there will be incense used at this service.

All Souls' Day Eucharist

There will be a celebration of the Eucharist tomorrow, 2 November at 9 a.m. for All Souls' Day. If you would like a departed loved one remembered at this service, please add their name(s) to the list in the lobby or email the office. No need to sign up to attend ahead of time.

ACW Meeting

The ACW will meet on Thursday at 1:30 p.m. in the Crosby room. We will follow church protocol for masks, hand sanitizing and physical distancing. Tea and fellowship to follow. All welcome.

Memorial Flowers

The flowers at the Altar are given to the glory of God and in memory of Clendon and Roland Taylor by Robert Taylor. The flowers at the Chancel steps are in memory of Sheila Jackson my Pam Brown. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them.

Pastoral Visitation

A reminder that visitation by parish clergy is happening on request. If you or a loved one would like a visit or Holy Communion at home, please reach out to the office, Fr. Paul, or Judy Streeter.
