Twenty-Second Sunday after Trinity

8 November 2020

The Anglican Parish of Rothesay

Sunday School

Sunday School will be downstairs today during the 10 a.m. service.

Lectionary Bible Study

You're welcome to join Father Paul on Wednesday mornings at 10 a.m. for a Bible Study based on the up-coming Sunday readings. Do consider coming.

Masks at Church

Masks are now required in all indoor public spaces in New Brunswick - that includes churches. If you do not have a mask, there are disposable ones available in the narthex.

Youth Group Appeal

Our Youth Group ministry is in great need of helping hands. Safe Church requirements state that there must be two adults present. Pastor Jeremy cannot continue on his own. We had to cancel last week's meeting due to there being no helpers. We are asking that you seriously and prayerfully consider taking a couple of hours once a month to help with our youth ministry. Without assistance this important ministry will not continue in our parish.

Stewardship Reflection

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." (Matthew 25:13) Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. Don't delay. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

Fr. Paul & Erin's New House

"We are very excited to share with you the news that we purchased a house in Hampton. It's a lovely old home with tons of character that needs a little TLC. It is a big milestone for Erin and me as a newly married couple and is an investment in our future. We look forward to someday moving in, but for the time being will be staying put in the rectory." - Fr. Paul

Birthday Wishes

We wish many birthday blessings to Marge Seely, who will turn 90 on November 9th.

St. Paul's Online Book Club

Our Book Club meets each Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. via Zoom. If you're interested in joining us, please call the office of contact Fr. Paul directly.

Come unto me and rest...

Did you know that St. Paul's is open Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.? You are very welcome to drop by during that time if you're looking for some quiet moments for prayer and reflection. There's also usually a member of our ministry team around to be a listening ear if you need it.

Sounds for Sigowet

Signing up for Worship

Pastoral Visitation

A reminder that visitation by parish clergy is happening on request. If you or a loved one would like a visit or Holy Communion at home, please reach out to the office, Fr. Paul, or Judy Streeter.

Remembrance Service on the Common

Due to COVID-19 precautions, there will be no cenotaph service on the Rothesay Common this year. In lieu of a service, you are invited to stop by the cenotaph at some point on 11 November to observe your own moment of silence and to leave a poppy if you wish - respecting physical distancing. A wreath will be placed at the cenotaph on that day on behalf of St. Paul's.

Why didn't they share their oil?!

Why do the five wise virgins not share their oil with the foolish ones? Because the oil represents something that simply cannot be shared. The oil is representative of our good works. The wise maidens represent all those who bear the fruit of good works that characterize a complete Christian life. The foolish maidens are representative of those who fail to embrace the moral virtues and good works integral to a godly life. At the moment of judgment, the good works of others are not transferable. We must each stand and be judged based on the fruits of faith in our own lives. (Matthew 25:1-13)

Memorial Flowers

The flowers at the Altar are given to the glory of God and in memory of Amy & Herbert Newell and their daughter Janet Kinsella by their family. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them.
